NEW TO BICYCLING OR WALKING IN MARIN COUNTY?

Whether you want a more active commute, a way to get more exercise, or a leisurely way to reduce stress, walking and bicycling in Marin County is a great option. Use the steps below to get started:

Step 1: Choose your mode

Use Google.com/Maps to determine how far away your destination is.

If it's one mile or less, walking is often a great option.

If it's over one mile, consider biking!

Tips for New Bicyclists

For help getting started bicycling in Marin, visit marinbike.org/resources/beginner-tips. If you need help fixing up your bicycle, or finding the right bike for you, try reaching out to a local bike shop - they are happy to help!

Step 2: Find & practice your route

Use the resources under Maps and Guides to plan your route ahead of time and test it out on a day with no time constraints.

Step 3: Prepare for your trip

Take a look at the weather forecast to figure out what clothes to wear or bring. If you're walking, make sure you have comfortable walking shoes. If you're biking, make sure your bike is in good working order.

Step 4: Enjoy the ride, or walk!

Bicycling and walking is good for you and our community. Not only can it help you improve your health, save money, and reduce stress, it can help to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and traffic congestion in our community.
